22 TACOMA SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 10; a
23 public corporation; MEGAN CLARK,
24 individually; SANDRA HOLMES,
25 individually; MELISSA PORTER,
individually; STEVEN HOLMES,
individually; JANE AND JOHN DOES 1-7,

Defendant(s).

NO. 3:21-cv-05865-LK
STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

26 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

27 Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or 28 private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby 29 stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties
30 acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket
31 protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public

1 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential
2 treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file
3 confidential information under seal.

4 2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

5 “Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things 6 produced or otherwise exchanged:

- 7 1. The records, names, and personal information of individuals from education records
8 subject to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (“FERPA”);
- 10 2. The records, names, and personal information of individuals from education records
11 subject to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (“IDEA”); 12
- 13 3. The records, names, and personal information of employees of the Tacoma School
14 District subject to RCW 42.56.230(3), RCW 42.56.250(4); RCW 42.56.050; RCW
15 42.56.230 (7)(a);
16
- 17 4. Applications for public employment of employees of the Tacoma School District under 18 RCW 42.56.250(2);
19
- 20 5. Employee performance evaluations of employees of the Tacoma School District under 21 RCW 42.56.230(3);
22
- 23 6. The names and personal information of minors subject to RCW 10.97.130.
24
- 25 7. Medical, psychiatric, and independent medical examination evaluations records.

3. SCOPE

23 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 24 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all 25

1 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony,
2 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

3 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in 4 the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

5 The parties understand and agree that Defendant Tacoma School District must have 6 reasonable opportunity to notify the parent or eligible student subject to this order in advance of 7 production of any confidential FERPA information identified above and that such parent or eligible
8 student may be entitled to seek protective action.

9 The parties understand and agree that records subject to this protective order and responsive
10 to discovery will be provided in unredacted form, to the extent the parties possess unredacted 11 records and to the extent allowable by law, unless a subsequent protective order is entered 12 prohibiting the release of certain names or information. The parties further understand and agree
13 that nothing in this protective order prejudices Plaintiffs' rights to pursue through litigation 14 documents being produced in unredacted form.

15 The parties further understand and agree that this order in itself does not determine what is 16 relevant or subject to discovery under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26.

17 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

18 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed
19 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 20 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the 21 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential material 22 must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures 23 that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

1       4.2     Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 2 by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any 3 confidential material only to:

4                 (a)     the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as employees
5 of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

6                 (b)     the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the 7 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties
8 agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney’s Eyes Only and is so 9 designated;

10                 (c)     experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this
11 litigation;

12                 (d)     the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

13                 (e)     copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 14 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
15 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately 16 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

17                 (f)     during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 18 reasonably necessary, unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court.
19 Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential 20 material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except 21 as permitted under this agreement;

22                 (g)     the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 23 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

24        4.3     Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 25 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party,

1 in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will
 2 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion
 3 to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 4 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue,
 5 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing
 6 the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and 7 the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material
 8 under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the 9 requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal.
 10 Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with 11 the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

12 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

13 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party 14 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 15 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
 16 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 17 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 18 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 19 unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

20 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 21 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 22 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses 23 and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

(a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

(b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

(c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

1       5.3     Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 2 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party's
3 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 4 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated
5 in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

6.     CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

7       6.1     Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 8 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality 9 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 10 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 11 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 12 original designation is disclosed.

13       6.2     Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
14 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential
15 designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration 16 or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other
17 affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list
18 the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-19 to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

20       6.3     Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
21 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Local 22 Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 23 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 24 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 25

1 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain 2 the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

3 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
4 LITIGATION

5 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
6 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL," that party 7 must:

- 8 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 9 subpoena or court order;
- 10 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 11 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 12 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and
- 13 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 14 the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

15 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential
17 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 18 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures,
19 (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, and (c) inform 20 the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this 21 agreement.

22 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
23 MATERIAL

24 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 25 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the

1 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision 2 is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or 3 agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the 4 entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

5 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

6 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 7 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and 8 summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

9 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all 10 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
11 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work 12 product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

13 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 14 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

15 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
